ERASMUS+60 CONSORTIUM LAUNCHES 7 FREE E-LEARNING COURSES

We are thrilled to announce our latest accomplishments! Seven English-language e-learning courses, covering a variety of topics, are now available on our e-learning platform, WiseLearn, free of charge.

The Erasmus+60 project is dedicated to fostering lifelong learning by providing accessible e-learning opportunities through both research and practical course development. We encourage you to spread the word about these new courses among your friends and colleagues, so that many 60+ learners can benefit from it.
Register: Interested learners can register here.

Overview of all courses:

- » An introduction to digitalization and artificial intelligence (University of Zurich, Switzerland)
- » Centrality of critical thinking in lifelong learning (University of Latvia)
- » Cultural diversity: similarities and differences (Eötvös Loránd University, Hungary)

» Permacultural gardening (Mendel University, Czech Republic)

» Promoting active aging and well-being through physical activity (University of Split, Croatia)

» Promoting healthy aging through practical exercises (University of Porto, Portugal)

» Travel literature and health tourism (University of Versailles Saint-Quentin-en-Yvelines, France)